Nekeisha Alexis-Baker, Elkhart, Indiana, is a Trinidadian native married to Andy. She is an alumna of Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary, where she currently works as a graphic designer. She is thankful for the communities of which she is a part and is committed to practicing justice in as many areas of her life as possible.

Connie Bentson Byler, Burgos, Spain, and her husband, Dennis, were missionary children in Argentina, and have been serving for almost 29 years in Spain with Mennonite Mission Network. Connie is on the leadership team for the Burgos Mennonite Church, and is now enjoying the empty nest.

Meghan Good, Albany, Oregon, holds a Master of Divinity degree from Duke University Divinity School in Durham, North Carolina. She is the lead pastor of Albany Mennonite Church. She enjoys reading, hiking, talking endlessly about God...or college basketball, and exploring creative new forms of worship.

Kirsten L. Klassen, Elkhart, Indiana, works in the marketing department of Mennonite Mutual Aid, and is a member of Hively Avenue Mennonite Church. She enjoys spending time with her daughter, playing Scrabble, and writing fiction.

Heidi Martin, Strasburg, Pennsylvania, is a 2007 graduate of Bluffton University, Bluffton, Ohio with degrees in English Literature, Writing, and Wellness. Heidi is a freelance writer who indulges in the joys of baking and bike riding in her spare time.

Elizabeth Soto, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, is a proud mother of two teenage girls Yentli and Sara, and happily married to Frank Albrecht. An ordained pastor, Elizabeth has a pastor's heart, caring for people in need, which is how she started working with families suffering from family violence. She works at Lancaster Theological Seminary as coordinator of field education and consultant for their cross-cultural seminar trips.
