Dorothy Nickel Friesen, North Newton, Kansas, has been a teacher, editor, pastor, seminary administrator, and now, a conference minister. She and her husband, Richard Friesen, are the parents of two daughters and grandparents of two grandchildren. For relaxation, Dorothy takes naps, reads novels, and eats chocolate!

Dr. Barbara Green Moses, Sicklerville, New Jersey, is the founding principal of the Philadelphia Mennonite High School. This is her 40th year in education, and she has loved every moment of it. She is also the mother of one married daughter and has two grandchildren.

Evie Hertzler, served as the East Coast representative on the MW USA Board from 2004 until her death, June 3, 2008. She also served as the President of Ohio Mennonite Women before moving to Harrisonburg, Virginia. Evie leaves Don, her husband of 48 years, three children, and seven grandchildren. She worked tirelessly for the church and for the women of the church. She truly will be missed.

Erica Littlewolf-Clifford, Porcupine, South Dakota, is Northern Cheyenne from Busby, Montana and is married to Scott Clifford, Oglala Lakota from Rockyford, South Dakota. They began their three-year term with MCC Central States Oglala Lakota Nation Unit in 2007. They currently reside near Scott's family in the Rockyford/Porcupine area of the Oglala Lakota Nation with their two dogs, nine chickens, and one cat.

Andrea Ressler, Kidron, Ohio, is a senior at Bluffton University majoring in Communications and Business Administration. She is a member of Orrville Mennonite Church.

Rebekah Wingert, Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, spent the last 3 years working with MCC in Mymensingh, Bangladesh. With the help of her Bangladeshi co-workers she designed products that used local materials and were distinctly Bangladeshi.
