

contents

Caring for Creation One Bite at a Time by Nekeisha Alexis-Baker	4
Transformed and Transplanted by Rita Friesen	7
Bible Study by Bev Regier	10
Three Windows, Three Women	12
Grapevine	15
Across the Border, Across the Ocean by Heather Block	16
Home, Hearth & Health by Wendy Chappell-Dick	18
Culture, Clips & Kudos by Kara Schmidt	20
Response to Sister Question and Cup of Water	22
On the Road with Rhoda	23

Nekeisha Alexis-Baker, Elkhart, Ind., is a transplant from her native Trinidad. She lived in New York City before moving to Elkhart with her husband, Andy. In May, Nekeisha graduated from Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary with an MA in Theological Studies. She plans to remain at AMBS as an intentionally eco-conscious graphic designer.

Heather Block, Winnipeg, Manitoba, works as a program manager for Andrews Street Family Centre, a family and community development center in one of Winnipeg's poorest communities. She lives with her adopted son, Sam, 6. She is a member of Aberdeen Evangelical Mennonite Church.

Wendy Chappell-Dick, Bluffton, Ohio, lives with her husband, two children and a wood-burning cook stove. She recently earned her MBA degree from Bluffton University. Wendy is a member of First Mennonite Church in Bluffton.

Rita Friesen, Filley, Nebraska, is a wife and mother of three young adult daughters and one teenage son. She enjoys vacationing to explore new locations, but the Great Plains have always felt like home.

Bev Regier, Newton, Kansas, lives on a farm with her husband Chuck. She is birth and adoptive mother to seven children and grandmother to one. Her interests include journaling, faithful living, and meaningful conversations.

Kara J. Schmidt, Newton, Kansas, is a poet and a recent student teacher at Chisholm Middle School. She graduated from Bethel College, where she received degrees in English and education. She works at Pages, a bookstore in downtown Newton.

